KENTUCKY TO GAIN BY PAYNE TARIFF

Free Tobacco, Increase of Duty on Hemp

And Rate on Flourspar will Help State--New Law Much Misrepresented

Washington, Aug. 9.—Somewhat wearied by the long siege over the tariff bill but with assurances from his friends that he had made his influence felt in the Senate, Senator William O. Bradley, of Kentucky, left for Louisville Sunday evening.

The Senator says he is confident the tariff bill will meet with the approval of the country when it is understood, and that the local features will strengthen the Republican party in Kentucky.

He stated frankly in discussing the items in the bill in which he was interested that Kentucky did not get all she deserved but that there were a number of increases which will help encourage the industries of the State, and that the free tobacco clause should prove a great benefit to the farmers.

I do not think the tariff bill is fully understood by the people of the country," said the Senator before his departure, for the reason of the many misrepresentations that have been made of its schedules. "The oft repeated assertion that the law will increase the price of necessities to the consumers is empty rot. Those who are denouncing it claim it will increase the price of clothing and yet the fact is the present tariff carries lower duties than the Dingley Bill. It is also contended that the bill will increase the price of foodstuffs, yet the same gentlemen argue that the protective duty upon wheat, corn and other farm products is of no effect.

"I voted against free hides because I was satisfied the effect of such legislation would be to increase the profits of the great tanners and shoe manufacturers without giving any relief to those who wear the shoes. When those who professed to advocate free hides in order to decrease the price of shoes were met with the proposition to reduce the tariff on leather and shoes, they raised an awful howl. However the bill has passed carrying with it a reduction on leather and shoes and in my opinion will give some relief to the consumers of harness and shoes. Without a reduction in the products of hides no one would be benefited except the large tanners and shoe manufacturers.

The bill, of course does not please everybody and no bill could be framed that would, I believe the Payne law will prove a great improvement over the Dingley law—an improvement that was demanded by changed conditions. I think the country at large will be benefitted and when it is in effect it will bring around a period of general prosperity.

The free tobacco provision will prove a great benefit to the farmers of Kentucky by opening up a new market for tobacco that they have not enjoyed. Large increases on hemp and also a tariff on jute were placed in the bill in the Senate, which had been carried out in conference, would have done much for the benefit of the Kentucky producers.

It is a source of regret to me that they were not adopted by the conference as it passed the Senate. It was found, however, impossible to carry out this plan, owing to the uncompromising opposition of the Southern Senators who wanted cheap baling for their cotton; Western Senators who were insisting on cheap sacks for their grain, and the authorities in the State where jute is flowered, we did secure an increase of $2.50 a ton on hemp, which is a step in the right direction and will lead to better results.

The adoption of a tariff of $3 a ton on flourspar has saved this industry in Kentucky from destruction and will prove a blessing to the section of the State in which this product is being mined. Upon the whole the people of Kentucky have fared reasonably well when it is taken into consideration that there was a general cry for reduction in the tariff on raw materials. The State in my opinion, will share largely in the general prosperity which is bound to follow in the wake of the Payne bill."

ON RECORD AS STATE-WIDERS

Baptist Association Adopted Temperance Resolution

The Abolition of Liquor Manufacture And Sale More Momentous than Slavery

The Davless County Baptist association which was held at Bethabara church in Habitat last week adopted the following state wide prohibition resolution by a unanimous vote:

"It is with pleasure and thanksgiving to God that we note the rising of the temperance movement in our Southern Zion. While the North liberated from slavery, a few hundred thousand people, the South having taken the initiative in the modern temperance movement is destined to be the emancipator of ninety million of our people from the curse and bondage of rum. We rejoice at the progress that our own dear Kentucky has made in this movement and though many foes against God and humanity have arisen to prevent its progress yet we feel that the day of state-wide prohibition is not far distant.

"The unscrupulous methods of the liquor interest to prevent legislation for the protection of our homes has played no small part in the creation of a public sentiment against this giant evil. The Baptists have acted well their part and borne faithfully their full share of the burdens of this warfare and we thank God for the zeal of our noble brotherhood. Praise God that we now have eight Southern states that have abolished the rum traffic by adopting state-wide prohibition.

"We most heartily endorse the splendid work done during the past year through the Anti-Saloon league. One hundred of our 119 counties are now dry, therefore, we believe the time has fully come when we should join our sister States in state-wide prohibition and we, your committee recommend that this association, composing an integral part of this great commonwealth, shall pledge our support and co-operation to that end and that we shall urge the passage by the next general assembly of a law submitting to a vote of the people of Kentucky a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of spirituous vinous and mal liquors within our bounds.

TOBACCO GROWERS ARE FOR HARMONY

Will Work Together In Green River District

All Three Tobacco Associations Had Delegates in Attendance

Owensboro Ky., Aug. 10.—A very successful conference of the three tobacco associations, the Green River Tobacco Growers' association, the Green River Equity Warehouse association and the Green River District Tobacco Growers association of the A. S. of E. was held in the city on Monday. Representatives from each of the associations in the counties of Ohio, Hancock, McLean and Davless were present.

Organization was effected before noon by the election of Henry Willhoite as president and Henry Shater as secretary. He is from Price and is a member of the Home Warehouse company.

Following were the delegates in the meeting.
Hancock—Henry Shater, J. B. Holland, John G. Kelly, W. W. Spencer and J. T. Atkins.
Ohio—Dudley Ford, Henry Pirtle and J. C. Withers.

McLean—Walter Atherton, S. B. Robertson, W. E. Blibbs.
Davless—Henry Berry Henry Willhoite, J. W. Dunn, Geo. M. Taylor, Price Baird, J. M. Hay, J. C. Tinius, S. T. Burns.

There was the most complete harmony throughout the proceedings and the purpose of the conference, the getting together in regard to the pricing and the selling of the 1909 crop of tobacco was fully accomplished. Last year there were three sales committees and three separate sales, one by each of them. This was not as satisfactory to the buyers as it is expected the concert action will prove.

It was unanimously agreed to close all pooling pledges at a time named by the committee the time not to be later than September 30, 1909.

The meeting was made up of delegates chosen several weeks ago by the different organizations.

The afternoon meeting was held behind closed doors.

Stone-Thomas.

The latest affair of the season was the marriage of Miss Sarah May Thomas, of Olanton, and Mr. Olie D. Stone, Dundee, which took place Saturday afternoon August 7th, at the brides home near Olanton. Rev. T. J. Acton officiating. Miss Dollie White of Olanton, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Bernice Nabors of Dundee was best man.

The ceremony took place at 4:45. Immediately after duty refreshments were served. The bride party were tastefully and becomingly attired. The bride wore blue silk and white and the bridesmaid cream color and white. After congratulations and serving of refreshments the guests repaired to the beautiful shade in the yard where they were highly entertained by some very nice instrumental and vocal music by Messrs. Guy Shreve, Carson Shreve, Bernice Nabors, Comba Nabors, Miss Jessie Shreve, Mrs. Lonnie Daniel, and Little Miss Florence Saltsman, all being excellent musicians and appearing to the best of advantage.

The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas of Olanton and a niece of Prof. A. P. Thomas of Providence Ky., she is a very beautiful cultured and refined young lady and numbers her friends by her acquaintances and well merited the man of her choice. Mr. Stone is a worthy and ambitious young farmer of the Dundee neighborhood and is to be congratulated on his choice for a companion to share his joys and sorrows through life. These popular young people in starting out on life's rugged journey together take with them the best wishes of their many friends, and may they live long and be happy is the wish of.

One Present.

CROMWELL.

Aug. 10.—On Monday night July 19th, Rev. A. B. Gardner began a tent meeting at Cromwell. The tent was a large one, seating a large congregation. It seemed from the first that the town and surrounding country was co-operating with Bro. Gardner in the efforts to raise the standard of the cross, and truly all past records of protracted meeting were left behind. The people not only filled the tent but literally covered the beautiful swell of ground, on which it was set. A conservative estimate would place the vast throngs, from five hundred to one thousand souls. Not only did the young men and women come to the mercy seat, but others older in sin came and ask interest in the blood shed on the tree off the cross for their salvation. Nor did they come in vain for something like forty souls found peace through the faith that was once for all delivered unto the saints the consummation of it all. On Thursday of last week Bro. Gardner plunged beneath the liquid nave thirty-four souls.

Mrs. Nannie Bond, of Caneyville, Mrs. Flora Howard of No Creek and Mrs. Martha Allen of Rosine, are at the bedside of their brother Prof. Lawrence M. Gary, who is very ill of typhoid fever at the home of his mother, Mrs. S. T. Gary.

Mrs. Inis Maddox and daughter, of Linton Ind., are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Mrs. Moller of St. Louis Mo. is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Wallace.

Corbie Taylor who has typhoid fever is improving.

Florence Miller who has typhoid fever has relapsed.

Other interesting matters have been left out for the want of space and time.

Lost.

On the Hartford road, somewhere between Buda and Hartford, on Sunday the 8th, one striped dark brown two-button dress coat, with a yellow lead pencil in same package. Reasonable reward will be paid for its delivery to the Republican office or to Bennett's store at Buda or for information of its whereabouts.

THE PAYNE TARIFF BILL

History of the Measure and a Summary of Its Principal Provisions—The New Free List.

What the People Will Pay Less and More For—President Taft's Fight For Downward Revision.

After one of the bitterest and one of the most momentous legislative duels in the history of the national capital the new tariff measure, the Payne bill, has been completed.

The progress of the bill through the legislative mill of both houses was eventful enough to satisfy the most pronounced cravers for parliamentary warfare. The real battle opened when the bill (house report 1438) was received in the senate and referred to the committee on finance, April 10. Aldrich of Rhode Island, the leader of the senate as chairman of the finance committee, subsequently became chairman of the conference committee, which was appointed to adjust the differences arising between senate and house and between both houses of congress and the president.

Taft For Free Hides.

The report of the conference committee which determined what would be the provisions of the Payne bill in its final form was a victory for President Taft. He informed all of the conferees that hides must be placed on the free list, together with petroleum, crude and refined. They therefore decided to cut the Dingley tariff on hides to 8 per cent. The president heard the news and sent word that he had meant what he had said about free hides. The figures were then lowered to 7 per cent. Now Chairman Aldrich of the ways and means committee decided to demonstrate that his original bill, providing for free hides should no longer be subjected to the emasculatory operations of the majority of the conferees. He announced that not even a 5 per cent duty on hides would be accepted by either himself or the house. "Without free hides this tariff bill will not pass the house," he was quoted as saying. The tariff came off hides instantly, and as quickly was all put on the untaxed schedule, together with gasoline, benzene and naphtha. The leather, rough lumber, print paper, coal and iron and glove schedules ranked next in importance during the closing days of the controversy.

If hides came in free, the important New England boot and shoe manufacturing interests would consent to a reduction of the tariff on their products, otherwise they would continue to fight. The solving of the hides problem left a simple matter to agree to lower duties on boots and shoes—the Dingley rate being 25 per cent. Saddlery and harness were cut to 40 per cent, as against the Dingley rate of 45 per cent. The president resorted to the unusual method of sending a written message to the conference committee demanding lower rates on lumber and gloves than the Payne bill provided, and he secured them.

Wool and Cotton.

The wool schedule underwent no change of consequence, but the entire cotton schedule was reconstructed and the phraseology greatly changed in the hope of preventing reductions through decisions by the courts such as have characterized the adulteration of the Dingley law during recent years. In many instances the rates intended to be imposed by the Dingley law were cut by these decisions, the reductions in some instances being from 60 per cent to 8 per cent ad valorem.

Probably the most marked reductions are found in the metal schedule. Beginning with a decrease in the rate of iron ore from 40 to 15 cents per ton, there is a general reduction throughout that part of the bill, pig iron going down from $1 to $2.50 per ton and scrap iron from $1 to $1. The reduction on many of the items in this schedule amounts to about 50 per cent.

Though lumber goes down from $1.50 to $1.25 per thousand feet, with a corresponding reduction in the differential on dressed lumber.

The president was subjected to several pressures from both the upward and downward revisionists throughout. The upward revisionists told him that a reduction of duty on hides, and leather manufactures would make the next congress Democratic, in which event they argued that Taft would not possibly be re-nominated for the presidency. The "downward" told him that Roosevelt would surely be the next Republican candidate for president if the campaign promises for a downward revision were not fulfilled.

The Corporation Tax.

The president had a highly difficult task also in preserving his scheme for a corporation tax intact in the Payne bill. This feature is clearly the most unpopular one in the entire measure, so far as members of the senate and house were concerned. Many of the members argued to the president that the tax as provided for was unconstitutional. Resolutions were introduced in the various state legislatures condemning the act and recommending its repeal, according to statements made by various congressmen in Washington.

The corporation tax of 1 per cent on the entire net income over and above $5,000 received by corporations from all sources, exclusive of certain items, must be paid on or before June 30 each year. Persons authorized to make returns or statements to the government and who make returns or statements of a fraudulent nature are subject to a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for one year.

During the closing days of the tariff controversy, before the bill was voted on for final passage, over forty Republicans who had grievances of one sort or another against certain of the provisions of the bill stated that they would vote against it. They had it in their power to defeat the measure and force the president to call another special session in September or October. They had the party leaders plainly worried for a time, but the able peacekeepers at the capital, including President Taft himself, succeeded in calming the ruffled waters at last.

HISTORY OF THE BILL.

The new tariff law will be known in history as the Payne bill, taking its name from the chairman of the house committee of ways and means, the Hon. Seneca E. Payne of New York, who also had a part in framing the McKinley and Dingley acts. Actually it should perhaps be called the Payne-Aldrich bill, as the chairman of the senate finance committee has had quite as much to do with dictating its final provisions as Mr. Payne. On this line of reasoning, however, there are those who insist that it should be called the Taft bill, as the hand of the president has been seen in all the moves that have shaped it from the days of the Republican national convention that nominated him and adopted a plank for tariff revision up until the hour of the final fight in conference committee, when the big man in the White House made his historic fight for free raw materials and for carrying out the promises of the party.

It is the first time there has been a change of the tariff laws in twelve years, the Dingley act having gone into effect in 1897. The inception of that law was strikingly like that of the present. In each case it was enacted by an extra session of congress, called as the first act of an incoming administration. More noteworthy still, each of these extra sessions was called to meet on March 15, the first one having been issued by William McKinley of Ohio, the last by William Howard Taft of Ohio.

The Tariff Plank.

The agitation within the Republican party for a revision of the Dingley act has gone on from the days of the "Iowa idea" until at last it culminated in the plank in the last Republican platform beginning:

"The Republican party declares unequivocally for a revision of the tariff by a special session of congress immediately following the inauguration of the next president."

In his campaign on that platform, Mr. Taft construed this plank as meaning revision downward, a point that he insisted on in his speeches and finally clinched in his inaugural address when he said that conditions had so changed relative to the Dingley act that they "will permit the reduction of rates in certain schedules and will require the advancement of few, if any." That meant revision downward, which was recognized substantially by the house bill, but was changed to actual revision upward by the senate bill. It was at this point that the president quietly but firmly injected himself into the fight in the conference between the two houses, the house standing behind him and forcing the senate to yield. The Payne bill in its present form is the result.

First Tariff Bill.

The first tariff bill enacted in the United States was that of the first congress. The opening section of that bill stated that, in addition to securing money for the support of the government, the tariff was adopted for the "encouragement and protection of manufactures." From that time political parties of national scope have battled on the issue of the tariff as to whether or not it should be more than "for revenue only."

The expenses of the war of 1812 necessitated a material increase in the tariff, but an adjustment occurred two years after the close of the war through an act prepared by Henry Clay.

In 1826 the tariff was jumped up a few pegs, and a year later it went higher, from 21 to 41 per cent.

When, in 1832, a bill establishing a protective tariff policy was passed, South Carolina refused to recognize the validity of the increased duties and threatened to secede. President Jackson had to dispatch a warship to South Carolinian waters.

A horizontal reduction of the tariff took place in 1853. Twelve years later, under Polk's administration, a bill drafted by Robert J. Walker, secretary of the treasury, was adopted, standing mildly for the protective policy. This bill lasted until 1857, when a reduction to 20 per cent occurred on the average duties. Actually a free trade system, this law tariff proved adequate for all government needs until the outbreak of the civil war, when an increased income was necessitated.

The Morrill Bill.

The Morrill act of 1891 increased duties about one-third, and the tax was extended to include tea, coffee and sugar. Internal revenue was collected, beginning in 1862, and two years later the duties were raised 50 per cent for a period of ninety days.

After a succession of tariff measures to the war's close a cessation of this form of legislative activity occurred. But in 1870 and 1872 reductions were made down the list, some of which were restored in 1874, making the average duty 33 1/2 per cent. A tariff commission, was appointed in 1882 which prepared a bill that was put on the statute books, lasting six years. It was at this time that James G. Blaine took a most active part in tariff discussions. It was in the early eighties that William H. Morrison of Illinois, Democratic chairman of ways and means, prepared his well known horizontal reduction of 20 per cent on all taxed products, which was defeated.

During Cleveland's first administration the Mills bill was a powerful issue, and in 1888 the tariff fight resulted in the election of Benjamin Harrison to the presidency. He stood for a high protective tariff. As a result the McKinley bill was enacted, putting the duties over the marks reached during the civil war.

The Wilson Bill.

But the revision which followed resulted in the re-election of Cleveland in 1892, with a Democratic congress. Then resulted the Wilson bill, providing for wholesale reductions, particularly as regarding iron and steel manufactures. It should be noted that the Dingley bill in 1897 retained practically the iron and steel duties laid down in the Wilson measure.

Though William McKinley was elected on the financial issue in 1890, his first act after being sworn in as president was the calling of an extra session of congress to repeal the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill. The result of that session was the Dingley law, named for its author, Nelson Dingley, Jr., of Maine, which put the schedules practically back on the McKinley basis.

Following is a comparison between the old Dingley tariff rates and those of the new Payne bill:

DREADFUL HAY FEVER RAVAGES.

More Prevalent in the United States Than Other Countries.

In an exhaustive paper on hay fever read at a meeting of the Society of the Alumni of Bellevue Hospital Dr. W. W. Carter said that the disease, which will be making its annual visitation soon, was not recognized 100 years ago. Moreover he said this annoying complaint is more prevalent in the United States than in any other country, and it has increased to a remarkable extent in the last fifty years. These are some of the striking features of the paper.

"Hay fever is an affection of comparatively recent date; there is no positive evidence that it was recognized prior to 1819 when Bestock read before the Royal Medico-Chirurgical Society of London a paper entitled A Periodic Affection of the Eyes and Chest, in which he described his own affliction and attributed it to the sunshine and heat in summer.

"The remarkable increase of this malady during the past half century in this country at once arrests our attention and we seek an explanation. There are within our boundaries in the neighborhood of 100,000 hay fever subjects and this number is being rapidly augmented. Hay fever, like other reflex neuroses, is pre-eminently an affection of civilized man, and is most common in our large cities where it is increased with the increased demands for nerve energy.

On the other hand, the farmer who comes in contact with more pollen than any one else is practically never affected. In this case the immunity may have been acquired by constant with the exciting cause of the disease; but what is more likely, it comes as a compensation for his simple habits of life.

Heredity plays a most important part in this affection and is recognized by various writers in from 40 to 50 per cent of their cases. In my own practice in fully 75 per cent of cases more than one member of the family is affected. In one New York family where the father and two uncles are affected five out of seven children have hay fever and two of these have also asthma.

In regard to the use of drugs with a view to curing the affection, I must say that my own experiences have been most unsatisfactory."

Palliative Measures—If the patient is unable to go to a hay fever immune district he should avoid excitement and hurry. Exercise increases the number of respirations consequently the amount of pollen inhaled. Then, too, the perspiration is a solvent for the pollen and in the susceptible subject cause the face to itch and burn. Bright sunlight and dust aggravate the symptoms.

The skin, bowels and kidneys should be kept active and the diet must be frugal. Well-known reflex excitants, such as shell fish and strawberries should be avoided and meat should be taken only sparingly.—New York Times.

The Shadow we Cast

The shadows of life too often fall across the pathway of the travelers of life's highway. Many times there is a shadow when there should be sunshine. What think ye? Have you not seen it? A little thoughtfulness would have brought sunshine, when the over more sunshine; less shadow. Life will run happier through its ways and life will to many be worth living. The following along this line is also suggestive.

In this great world of sunshine and shadows we are conaround us and receiving shadows stantly easting shadows on those from them in return. There is no pathway of life which is not sometimes in the shade, and there is no one who walks over the paths it matters not which way they tried, who does not, now and then, cast his shadow with the rest. How often de we, by a mere thoughtless word or careless act, cast a shadow on some heart which is longing for sunshine? How often does the husband, by a cold greeting cast a gloom over the happy trusting face of his wife who, it may be, has waited anxiously for the sound of his footsteps to give him a joyous welcome to his home. How often has the parent, by a harsh reproof, chilled the overflowing.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas God has seen fit in the last three weeks to call three members of the Mt. Pleasant M. P. church and also members of Mt. Pleasant local of the A. S. of E. from this world of pain to their heavenly home above. The first to go was sister Ruth Sandefur, wife of Bro. E. P. Sandefur who crossed over to the better land June the 27 the next one to answer the call was Bro. H. C. Leach, on July 13th and on Sunday July the 18th the messenger visited the home of R. C. Stewart who had been suffering with consumption for over four years to lay down his burden of suffering and come up higher. Therefore be it, Resolved by the church and local No. 1772 That we have lost three worthy members and they will be greatly missed by all, therefore be it.

Resolved, That we extend to their bereaved families our heartfelt sympathy in this dark hour of their distress and commend them to their Heavenly Father in whom they put their trust.

ELECTRIC TIMEPEICE RUNS WITHOUT TICKING

King Insects Clock warranted
 To Run 1,000 Days In Any Position.

A clock which is absolutely silent, so that not the slightest ticking is heard, that is guaranteed to go for 1,000 days without requiring the slightest human attention, and that will keep correct time in any position—even upside down—such is the Eureka electric clock, which was submitted for the inspection of the King by Mr. Sigismund Kutnow, Chairman of the Eureka Clock Company, says the London News.

The simplicity and silence of the mechanism of the invention are remarkable.

This clock is an entirely new departure. It is as unlike the old timepiece, with the weights wheels and pendulum as can possibly be imagined.

Its dial hands are moved by direct impulse from the electric current. Hitherto attempts at making a self-winding clock have failed owing to the complexity of the mechanism.

There is, however, practically no mechanism in the ordinary sense of the word in the Eureka clock; such works as it has run on ball bearings large enough for a bicycle, so that the friction is almost nil.

The manufacture of this clock is destined to revive the clock-making industry which has been taken from England by German Swiss and American competitors.

Formerly England was famous for her clock-making and many an old lady to-day still bears the name of some time and clock-maker well known in their time throughout the world.

Now, however, cheap American and Continental timepieces have taken the place of then active product. The city Road factory of the Eureka Clock Company will produce an essentially British article, the work of British craftsmen.

It is further interesting to note that lads from orphanages are being employed and instructed in the newly revived science of clock-making.

Prosperity is predicted on all sides. If it comes, it will take the income tax all the more productive.

The talent of Mr. Rockefeller's money may be very deep, but it has no terror for us.

Our Senators and Representatives will now get a whack at the chautau platform and the rafters will rattle with their eloquence.

The Waco Texas Times-Herald is lambasting the Denver platform. The Times-Herald should strengthen its ability to determine when a thing is dead.

If the new religion which it is to be promulgated by Dr. Elliott succeeds in capturing all those who do not now possess any character of religion, it will not only take in all the outsiders, but a good many people who belong to some church.

The Hartford Herald seems to lay great store to the fact that we stated last week that the Republican candidates in addition to being honorable and competent were also good campaigners and had experience in that line. Does the Herald mean to insinuate that the fact that a candidate is a great campaigner, as was its thrice candidate for President, is to be taken as a mark of demerit against him?

After several years of conflict it now seems that the American Society of Equity, Green River District and Home Warehouse people are to work in harmony. This is as it should be. There is no reason whatever for conflict or struggle between tobacco growers. Their interests are identical and any conflict between organizations representing these interests can only result in benefit to the trusts, and he who fosters such conflict is guilty of treason to the interests of his fellow farmers.

We are glad to be able to announce that the fratricidal war among the tobacco growers in the Burley district has come to an end and peace and harmony once more prevail and the tobacco trust is left without a peg upon which to hang its hat. For this happy solution, which is in the interest of the farmers, all honor is due Hon. J. Campbell Cantrill, who first called attention to the injustice of the new pooling pledge to the members of the American Society of Equity who live in that district, and who by persistent effort has compelled the Burley society to recognize the American Society of Equity, notwithstanding he brought down upon his head unjust criticism from some of the people who have been trusted with leadership in the Burley Society. These people should now be relegated to the rear where they properly belong.

In this issue of the Republican we give complete the new tariff bill, with the story of its passage. It does not suit us in every particular, but we are willing to give it a fair trial. The mere fact that the question is to remain settled for several years will of itself tend to produce industrial activity and an era of prosperity in the country. A number of the schedules are unfair to the farmers, especially is this true of hides which were placed upon the free list.

without any compensation for this loss by cheaper shoes and other products of leather. It is now admitted that there will be no perceptible reduction in the price of boots and shoes, but it is given out that the consumer should get a better grade under the new law. Where so many conflicting interests were to be compromised it is impossible to please everyone and we accept our disappointment as gracefully as possible, trusting that the mistakes made this time will be rectified in the near future.

This talk of the American Society of Equity or any farmer's organization backing this candidate or that candidate for office should be discouraged with a firm hand by the organization. No farmer's organization can afford to enter politics in the advocacy of the election of any candidate, of any party for any office. The moment such organization takes a position of this kind it weakens its strength and its downfall is sure. As we have often said, the only way for a farmers organization to maintain its integrity and benefit its members is to attend strictly to its own business and give politics and "isms" a wide birth. We do not mean to be understood that farmers should not make their votes count when their interests are menaced by members of the Legislature or Congress, but this should be done in the party primary and in the general election, if necessary, by individual voting and not by bringing the matter into the organization proper.

OLATON.

Aug. 12.—Mrs. Belle Daniel, Mr. Ira Daniel, and Mrs. Annie Daniel, were summoned to the bedside of the latter's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jim Daniel at Island, Ky., Saturday night. Mrs. Daniel has been very dangerously ill, but from a late report is thought to be improved.

Mr. Boone Payton has returned from the M. H. and E. road and is the guest of his mother Mrs. Jane Payton. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams, who have been the guests of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. H. Felix, left Tuesday for their home at Murray, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Combs, of California, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Godsey last week.

Mr. Jno. Renfrow and family and Mr. Frank Cummings, wife and son, Ivan, of ———, and Mr. Wyatt Daniel, Olaton, were the guests of Mr. C. P. Cummings, and family, Sunday.

Misses Mayme Cooksey, Maude May Miller, and Ella Cummings, were the guests of Misses Essie and Bertha Crawford.

The young folks of the Sholeh vicinity were given a pleasant party at the home of Mr. Jim Smith's.

We are sorry to report that Uncle Tom Murphy, an aged resident of near town, is quite ill.

Mrs. Lullie Hoover Hilbro, and Miss Ola Hoover, of Olaton, are the guests of relatives here.

Mr. John J. Monroe, of Mississippi is the guest of his brothers, H. E. and Clyde Monroe, and sister Miss Virginia Monroe.

Mrs. Mattie Burkley is spending the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Beard, left Monday for Chrisney, Ind., they were accompanied to Fordsville Ky., by Dr. C. W. Felix and daughter, Miss Garrett.

Mr. Virgil Geary and Mr. Bill Hatle Rosine, were in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. A. H. Stewart was the guest of Miss Allie Murphy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Allen, Rosine, spent Wednesday and Thursday the guests of Mr. Allen's aunt, Mrs. M. H. Mrs. Tom Graves, and daughter, little Miss Jewel, Logansport, Ky., who spent last week with relatives here, left Saturday night for Beaver Dam, Ky., accompanied by Mrs. Grave's sister, Mrs. Fred Faught, where they spent several days with their mother, Mrs. Hallie McDaniel.

Mrs. Melvina Hall was the guest of her son, Mr. C. H. Hall and family Sunday.

Prof. A. H. Stewart's singing school at Yeaman, Ky., closed Sunday. This was probably the largest and most successful school in vocal music ever taught in that section of country. It is said that a very large crowd came out on the last day of school and spent the day with the singing class. The people brought lunches and dinner was spread in the grove at noon. Mr. Stewart's success as a vocal music teacher has been very great and we hope those in need of an experienced teacher may select Mr. Stewart.

Notice.

Hartford local A. S. of E. will meet at Bennett's school house Saturday night Aug. 21st at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is urged to attend and bring new members or persons desiring to join. F. W. PIRTLE, President.

Pool Fees and County funds Looked After

Nothing Said However, About Pledges or Salaries To Be Paid

Winchester, Ky., Aug. 10.—The American Society of Equity won a complete victory in the conference with the Burley Tobacco Society officials to-day.

The Executive Board of the Burley Tobacco Society, with Charles M. Hanna, of Shelby county; M. C. Rankin, State Commissioner of Agriculture, and Dr. Creechus, of Falmouth, went into conference with C. O. Drayton, National President of the American Society of Equity, and Hon. J. Campbell Cantrill, State President of the American Society of Equity, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Burley Tobacco Society offices to consider an adjustment of the differences which have existed between the Burley Tobacco Society and the American Society of Equity.

The conference lasted until 4 o'clock and countless rumors were floated in the streets as to the outcome of this important meeting of the heads of the two factions. As soon as the conference adjourned it was learned that the Burley Tobacco Society had agreed to make the following proposition to the American Society of Equity to pay $10,000 to the American Society of Equity, to be divided equally between the national union and the State unions, and that $5,000 of this sum is to be paid October 1 if the pool is a success, and $5,000 at the sale of the 1909 crop, all of which sum is to be chargeable to the 1909 crop.

Second—In all counties where there are local unions of the American Society of Equity to pay to such union $1 for every hog-head of tobacco produced in that county.

Third—To accept a by-law fixing a maximum price for pricing all pooled tobacco.

Fourth—To accept a by-law providing that all money coming into the hands of the central office at Winchester from the sale of tobacco shall be paid to the county to which it belongs within ten days after it is received.

After the propositions were submitted Messrs. Drayton and Cantrill retired to consider it, and in half an hour came back shaking several members of the board on the back, and shaking hands all the way around joyously announced that "The war is over."

However, as the action of Mr. Drayton will have to be ratified by the convention of the National District of the American Society of Equity which is to be held at Indianapolis, August 16, and Mr. Cantrill's action by the State Convention of the American Society of Equity, at Bowling Green, August 19, considerable interest is felt here by tobacco people as to the final action of these two bodies.

One of the members of the Burley Tobacco Society said to Drayton that "We will expect you to put this rough at Indianapolis," and he said, "I shall recommend it to the national union, and do all I can to have it put through."

Congressman Cantrill, when asked if the war was really over said: "I don't know, but hope so," and stated that he would not be interviewed. He stated to members of the Burley Tobacco Society Committee that if the Society of Equity did not accept this proposition he would withdraw from them and throw his influence with the Burley Tobacco Society, and offered to take the stump in behalf of the Burley Tobacco Society pool.

Here's Something Very Interesting To Every Lady in the Land.

A New Department Has Been Added to Our Mammoth Collection of General Merchandise

LADIES' COAT SUITS.

In opening up this new department, we fully sustain the established reputation of this store, "Never to do anything by halves." And to give the trade an opportunity to secure the very best the market affords in style, material and workmanship, we place at your disposal the famous Palmer garments. This line of ladies' ready-to-wear, stands at the head of the list of the garment manufacturers of this country and we want to impress upon you right here, that no retailer anywhere can give you better suits from any standpoint, than you can find right here. We know "from the reputation of this concern and from the experience we have had with the line at our other two stores" that the purchase of our suits means a regular customer for the line. In order that everybody might have an opportunity to see the line and compare with other lines before the actual demand begins, we have the line on exhibition now, and to say we are anxious to show you the line feebly expresses our feelings in the matter. We invite you and everybody else to visit our store and look at our MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY OF LADIES' NEW COAT SUITS.

Little Nancy King, daughter of Mr. Dan King, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is thought to be improving.

Married at the Methodist parsonage last Saturday morning by Rev. Virgil Elgin, Mr. Hardin F. Lane, of Philpot, Daviess county, to Mrs. Magie White of Olston.

Mrs. M. E. Smith, well known in Hartford, being the mother of Mrs. Heber Matthews and Mrs. J. E. Vickers, suffered a paralytic stroke at her home in Owensboro last week and for awhile she was in a serious condition. At last account yesterday, however, she was improving.

The following named young ladies and gentlemen, of Hartford, report a most delightful day spent at the Sulphur Springs Thursday of last week. Young men were high in their praise of the picnic lunch spread by the young ladies during the noon hour. Those composing the party were: Misses Willie Smith, Effie Renter, Anna Patton, Hattie Riley, Lorraine Sullenger, Alma Riley, Cora Anderson, Lorena Ford, Hattie Glenn, Alice Brown, Myrtle Williams, Ruth Riley; Messrs. Martin Thomas, Dr. J. T. Hardin, Ross Bennett, Douglas D. Felix, Haymer Tinsley, Cyrus Patton, Lonnie Hoover, Harry Glenn, Andrew Glenn, James D. Ford, Clarence Barnard and Grayson Haliburton.

Many Ohio county people took advantage of the low rates over the new railroad last Saturday to attend the great Masonic barbecue at Hardinsburg, and all report a very enjoyable trip and a pleasant day while there. The great prize, a fine horse and buggy given by Hardinsburg Lodge to the young lady who received the most votes was awarded to Miss Walls of Hardinsburg, after a close finish with Miss Baird. Attorney W. H. Barnes, of Hartford was one of the judges. Hon. M. C. Rankin spoke in the afternoon at 3 o'clock being introduced by C. M. Barnett, of Hartford.

Among those who attended from Hartford were Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Tinsley, Mrs. Fannie Taylor, Mrs. John H. Phillips, Messrs. W. H. Barnes and son Glenn, J. P. Sandefur, Capt. S. K. Cox, Isaac Sandefur, Clarence Caschler, Harry O'Bannon, Ed Moore and son, Clyde, C. M. Barnett and son Estill, Joe Bennett, Harold and Melleny Holbrook and John E. Bean.

Mrs. Gunther Dead.

Mrs. Mary Gunther, wife of Mr. Louis Gunther and one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the town or county, died at her residence in Hartford shortly after noon Tuesday. Her death was due to the infirmities of old age, but was rather sudden, although she had been ill for many months. Afflicted for years and worn with age, it just seemed that the frail body gave way and her spirit took its flight to the One who gave it.

Mrs. Gunther was 77 years old at the time of her death. She was a native of Germany, State of Baden, on the Rhine. She came to this country when a young woman and later was married to Mr. Gunther, who is also a native German. She was the mother of several children, but only two are left—Misses Henrietta and Margaret. These, with her husband, are her only immediate survivors.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon after which her remains were buried in Oakwood cemetery.

New Chairman Selected.

At a meeting of the Ohio County Republican Executive Committee, held at the court house yesterday afternoon, M. S. Ragland tendered his resignation as chairman and Sheriff R. B. Martin was unanimously elected to fill out the unexpired term. Both Ragland and Martin in short talks promised to do all they could to further the interests of the Republican party in Ohio county. Twenty-one members were present in person or by proxy. A list of election officers was selected to submit to the County Board of Election Commissioners. A vacancy in Ralph precinct was filled by the selection of Esquire Edge, and one in Butord by the selection of Claude Hudson.

A Card of Thanks

We desire to return our heartfelt thanks to those in Hartford who were so kind and attentive to us during the recent illness and death of our aunt. May the richest blessings rest upon them as our prayer.

The hour before recess was given to speeches readings and dialogues the latter by Misses Rosa Dooley and Ella Foster which was indeed interesting.

The time after recess was given for debating the subject Resolved, That a liar is worse than a thief which by division from judges Messrs. Harlan Shown, Otis Carson and W. C. Liles went in favor of Neg. by 2 to 1 for Aff. A committee viz. Messrs. Curry Wallace, Tymer Westfield, Melissa Foster and Belva McCormick was appointed to remove all rubbish from school yard caused by lightning's dreadful work.

The league was highly honored with an excellent talk from Prof. Otis Carson. Adjourned to meet again August 29 at 8 p. m.

Ohio County High School.

A noted American educator recently said: The people of this country will have just as good schools as they demand, and just as poor schools as they will put up with. The people of Kentucky have realized this fact and as a result are demanding better schools and more efficient teachers. A great educational wave has swept over the State and has left in its wake, not only a burning desire, but a firm determination to have better schools. Think of the great State of Kentucky once standing forty-second in point of education among her sister States! Is it any wonder that a whirlwind campaign for better schools is sweeping over every section of the State?

When the legislature made the provision in its statute books whereby county high schools could be established in every county, a great step forward advancement was made. This year we present to the people of Ohio county a first-class high school equal to the best high school in towns of the same population, of any other State in the Union. We offer you a course that any university will accept without question, and one that will train any boy or girl for the active affairs of life. When school opens on August 20th a new era will be marked in the history of Ohio county education. Your boy or girl can not afford to neglect this splendid opportunity, and upon the parents should rest the educational responsibilities. Let every boy and girl of high school age enter at the earliest possible moment. Our catalogue explains fully the courses, expenses, etc. Board can be secured in private families for $2.50 to $3.00. Tuition free in the High School to Ohio county pupils holding common school diploma. Those who do not hold diplomas will be admitted by examination. High School tuition to non-residents of the county $5 per nine weeks. For full information address Geo. E. Bailey, Hartford, Ky.

A Letter of Appreciation.

I desire to extend my heartfelt thanks to the people of Beaver Dam and adjoining community for their untiring interest in my little daughter during her illness of more than 50 days to say nothing about the substantial aid and beautiful flowers and I would not forget the skillful and untiring interest taken by Dr. Duff who deprived himself of pleasure as well as business to administer day and night at her bedside and last but not least we would mention the fact that many earnest prayers went up day and night from pulpit and home while anxious friends lingered I stand about the yard to wait results until finally a gleam of light sprang up in the home and the announcement went out "Ellen is better" all praise to God and thanks to the people.

A HANDSOME PRIZE LIST

Thirty Thousand Dollars Offered in Prizes for Week of September 12th to 18th.

Details of Some of the Chief Attractions to Be Presented This Year.

Thirty thousand dollars makes a very handsome prize list. This amount will be offered at the Seventh annual Kentucky State Fair, which is scheduled for the week of September 12th to 18th, inclusive. The marvelous piece of work accomplished in the incomparably short time of three months last season, in which the largest, most useful and most beautiful show pavilion in the world, and a permanent grand stand of steel and concrete construction were erected, a model half mile race track was built, and some forty or more buildings of a more temporary nature, for the housing of all livestock, agricultural, horticultural exhibits, etc., were completed, is fresh in the minds of those who witnessed last year's exhibition. With the addition of beautiful road ways, flower beds and installation of electric lights in the pavilion for the use of horse show and hippodrome performances in the evening, the grounds will present a grander and more brilliant spectacle this year. In nearly every department, the number of classes have been increased and more liberal prizes are offered. This is especially true in the beef, cattle and poultry departments, in each of which the total money offered is probably thirty per cent larger than last year.

The special prizes are much more attractive and represent a greater value than ever before. The honor and prestige of winning many of these trophies is infinitely greater than the intrinsic value of the prize itself. The specials listed include the "Highland Home" cup, which is donated by Gay Bros. of Piquette, Ky., for the best and finest saddle bred foal of 1909; the American saddle horse breeders' association trophy for registered stallion or mare three years old or under; the Montgomery chief special of $125 offered by Hall Bros., Versailles, Ky., for the finest and best stallion, mare or gelding any age by Montgomery Chief; the $1,000 Kentucky farmer's saddle horse trophy for saddle bred foals of 1909, the only saddle horse trophy in existence, which closed April 1st with 225 nominations; the commission of agriculture saddle horse special, value at $200 for the best five gaited saddle stallion, mare or gelding three years old or over; a handsome cup for the champion roadster, given by Mr. Basil Doornhoefer of Louisville; the Dr. McChord cup for the best herd of Jack stock offered by Mr. W. P. Hayes of Bloomfield, Ky.; the grand silver trophy offered by the American Berkshire Swine Association for best young herd of Berkshires exhibited by Kentucky breeder, which is the coveted honor of the show among Berkshire breeders in every state; an aggregate sum of nearly $400 given by Commissioner Rankin for all the leading standard varieties of poultry; a silver cup donated by Mr. F. H. Mehring for best exhibit of Kentucky bred poultry; specials by the Southdown, Hampshire and Oxford Sheep Record Association for exhibits of purebred sheep they respectively champion; and the American Angora Goat Breeders' Association special for the best flock of registered Angora kids.

In the cattle departments the money consideration for specials is the greatest and the classification most extensive. The American Shorthorn Breeders' Association and the American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association have each donated $750 for pure bred cattle of these respective breeds, one-half to be given in open competition and one-half to cattle owned by Kentucky exhibitors. These offers were made on condition that the State Fair management would set apart $1,000 in premiums for each of these breeds, which was done, thereby making a total of $1,750 for each breed. This is the largest amount ever offered for either Shorthorns or Herefords at any state fair or exposition south of the Ohio river, and perhaps equals the aggregate prize money at any exhibition in America this year with the exception of the national breed shows. The Polled Durham Association of America renews its offer of $100 in special prizes for Polled Durhams. The American Aberdeen Angus Breeders' Association, for the first time in several years, comes forward with a very liberal offer of $200 in specials for its breed. As a very gratifying innovation in the prize list, the Dairy Cattle Department contains some valuable specials. Through the generous liberality of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, the State Fair management has been enabled to double the amount of prize money for this dairy breed and to place its classification almost on a par with the Jersey, which has been the favorite dairy breed in the south ever since its importation in to this country, and the Kentucky Jersey cattle club will give a cup valued at $50.00 for the best Jersey herd of one bull and four heifers under one year old, bred by a Kentucky exhibitor. There are also numerous specials offered by Hon. M. C. Rankin, commissioner of agricultural departments, the most prominent of which are for county exhibits, $150,000 being offered for the best and largest display of farm, garden and orchard products. This has been a very interesting and educational feature at many of the leading state fairs for a number of years and will undoubtedly prove a success and boon to agricultural interest of Kentucky.

Superintendents of Departments at the Kentucky State Fair.

As usual most experienced and capable superintendents of departments have been appointed. R. H. Lillard, of Lawrenceburg, has for the third time been chosen superintendent of the horse department, and William Simmons, of Shepherdsville, will again be in charge of the mule exhibit. W. R. Moorman, Jr., of Glendegne, is superintendent of beef cattle and Edgar Vaughn, of Shelbyville, will for the eighth consecutive year be superintendent in the dairy cattle department. Other superintendents reappointed, are Colonel H. L. Igleheart, of Morganfield, swine department; W. B. Middleton of Shelbyville, sheep and goats; John H. Good, of Louisville, poultry and pigeons; H. C. Lovelace of Boston, field seed and grain; H. M. Froman, of Ghent, tobacco; Miss Evelyn Porter, of Louisville, woman's department; G. P. Rogers, of Smithland, farm implements and machinery; Prof. J. J. Hooper, of Lexington, students' judging contest, and H. L. Smyser, of Lyndon, speed department. Chas. Sholtz, Jr., of Louisville, is superintendent of vegetables and melons; Henry S. Adams, Eminence, of Horticulture; W. E. Bibb, North Pleasureville, of plants and flowers, and Lucien Beckner, Winchester, of minerals and forestry. The assistant superintendents have also been named: for poultry and pigeons, W. B. Buford, of Nicholasville; and Robert H. Young, of Louisville; for vegetables and melons, J. A. Peake, Livia; for field seed and grain, Geo. D. Karsner, of Lexington; for horticulture, M. F. Johnson, of Buichel; for woman's department, Miss Eva McGrew, of Bayou, and Miss Alice Porter, of Louisville.

Heads of Departments of the Kentucky State Fair.

There are eighteen exhibit departments, which have been placed under the head of the various members of the state board of agriculture as follows: M. C. Rankin, of Frankfort, poultry and pigeons, plants and flowers and student's judging contest; Prof. M. A. Servall of Lexington, beef cattle, dairy cattle and colts dogs; G. N. McGrew, of Bayou, woman's department, farm implements and machinery, manufactured products; H. M. Beard, of Hardinsburg, sheep and goats and vegetables and melons; Guthrie M. Wilson, Bradstown, horses, mules and Jack stock, speed department; Caldwell Norton, Louisville, swine; Desha Breckenridge, Lexington, education and art; William Addams, Cynthia, field seed and grain and tobacco; Fred R. Blackburn, Stanton, horticulture, forestry and minerals.

Kentucky State Fair Races.

Horse racing will be a greater attraction than ever at the State Fair this year. At last year's fair it was demonstrated that a successful harness race meeting could be held on these grounds. The popularity of the sport was never more pronounced. Unusually fast time was made on the new half-mile track which has come to be regarded as one of the best half-mile courses in America. At the meeting last year the grand stand and the grounds adjacent to it were thronged by a surging mass of humanity every afternoon eager to see every heat in every race, and not until the summary of the last race was hung up did the interest cease or enthusiasm dwindle.

The Kentuckians by nature has a fondness for horse racing. An opportunity for seeing his favorite sport will not be denied him at this year's fair. The early closing events show the largest list of entries ever recorded at the State Fair. These events are known as the Louisville Retail Merchants Association stake for 2:21 pacers, the Louisville Commercial Club stake for 2:20 trotters, and the Kentucky Brewers Association stake for 2:20 trotters. In addition to the stake races, there will be six purse and four gentlemen's road races. Purses entries close Sept. 6th. Entries for the cup race at twelve o'clock noon, the day before the race. The stake races will be on the three in five heat plan and the purse races on the two in three heat plan. There will also be two running races each day. This is destined to become one of the most popular training tracks in the country. This meeting fits into a very convenient circuit by following the Indiana State Fair and proceeding the Tennessee State Fair which is the initial meeting of the southern circuit of fairs and trotting meetings. The success of this year's meeting is already assured by the excellent list of stake entries, and the management is quite confident that all the purse races will fill satisfactorily.

AUDITORS ON TRAINS TO COLLECT FARES.

New Order Went Into Effect Sunday,
August 1st On Louisville Division.

Uninformed auditors to collect fares were placed on all passenger trains on the Louisville division of the Illinois Central Sunday. The following Chicago dispatch announces the official order.

"Following the trend of the Northwestern road in installing auditors on its passenger trains, the Illinois Central road has adopted a similar plan, the first trial being made on the Louisville division between Louisville, Ky., and Memphis and hereafter passenger traveling between these two cities will hand their tickets or pay their cash fares to the train auditor instead of the conductor. Like the Northwestern officials the Illinois Central traffic heads contends that auditors have not been installed because they believe their conductors are dishonest, hat rather to lighten the burden of the man who has actual charge of the train and crew and who is largely responsible for the safety of the passengers.

"The Illinois Central has not yet decided whether or not the new plan will be extended over the entire system, but will wait and see how it works on the Louisville division.

"On the Northwestern road the train auditors have no regular runs and conductors never can tell when one of the officials will get aboard his train. They may check up the tickets on leaving the Chicago terminal or get aboard at some distant station."

The Secret of Long Life.

A French scientist has discovered one secret of long life. His method deals with the blood. But long ago millions of Americans had proved Electric Bitters prolongs life and makes it worth living. It purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, rebuilds wasted nerve cells, imparts life and tone to the entire system. Its a godsend to weak, sick and debilitated people. "Kidney trouble had blighted my life for months," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "but Electric Bitters cured me entirely." Only 50c at all druggists.

FISH MILK HERD OF COWS DRY.

Amazed Farmer Watches Finny
Denizens Rob Him of Lactal Fluid.

A most remarkable occurrence was witnessed near Nolin, in Hardin county, last Friday evening, when a number of large fish were seen milking cows.

Near the station is a large spring branch which empties into Nolin river. Near the mouth of this branch is a favorite place for cows to stand during hot days, where the water is about a foot deep. Friday they were at their accustomed place. It was just after a large rain, and Nolin creek got very muddy and began to rise rapidly.

As is always the case when such rises come, the fish seek clear water, and a great many of them ran in to a spring branch. The water literally alive with fish, which did not seem to frighten the cows at all. Thomas Monin a leading farmer of that section, was out looking for his cows and noticed a great commotion in the water, and as he watched he witnessed a remarkable occurrence, and one never before heard of in this section. As the water rose on the cows he saw a large fish grab the udders and milk them.

He remained some time on the bank watching them, and was fascinated by the novel sight. At last when the cows came out they had been stripped by the fish.

WOODPECKERS DAMAGE POLES.

Holes Take Water and Cause Rot.

Creosote Thought to be Good Remedy For the Bird Evil.

Considerable damage is being done to telephone, telegraph and electric light poles by members of the woodpecker family. These birds originally built their homes in the dead or dying trunks or limbs of trees, but for some reason best known to themselves have come to the conclusion that the peeled poles, offers better conditions for a home.

They have become so ravenous of late that their depredations are attracting considerable attention among those who are compelled to use quantities of wooden poles. Their activities spread over a wide portion of the United States, notably in the South, Southwest and Central West. Cedar poles seem to be the ones most frequently attacked. The birds bore into them at any height from the ground, and the holes which they make are often two or three inches in diameter four or five inches deep. Such an amount of wood drilled from a stick of timber which is carrying a load of wires naturally weakens the strength of the line.

It would, of course, not be a difficult matter to exterminate these birds. However, this is not desirable, as they are among the most beneficial forms of bird life native to this country, because they destroy large numbers of insects which seriously damage forest and food crops. It seems therefore that methods should be undertaken to compel the birds to revert to their former habit of boring rather than to exterminate them.

Frequent inquiries have been made by the Forest Service in this connection, but the only information to date which the Government has been able to obtain is that on a casual inspection of treated and untreated pole lines in Louisiana, in that region it was found that poles which had been impregnated with creosote oil were not attacked by the birds, whereas untreated poles under the same conditions were very severely injured.

Whether or not creosote will prevent such attack is not definitely known, but the Service is investigating this problem, and should this all prove a preventative, it will fulfill a two-fold purpose: It will protect the poles from decay and destruction from animal life. In southern Indiana, some members of a traction company thought that they could prevent further destruction of their poles by filling the holes in the wood with stones. The birds, however, simply drilled around the stones and made the conditions much worse. This apparently does not seem to be a means of preventing their depredations.

Japan Wants Protection.

It may be of some interest to Americans to know that Japan is about to formulate many new national policies. One of these is a Protective policy. The leading statesmen are said to lean to high Protective Tariffs, accompanied with reciprocal conventions. That nation that would enter Japanese markets will have to make concessions to Japanese goods.

In this respect Japan is simply placing herself in line with the best commercial and industrial thought of the world. There is no nation that is now thinking of abandoning Protection—with deference to our own Tariff reformers be it said—while the only nation that has had a degree of Free-Trade, England, contains a strong party in favor of Protective duties in many articles.

Nor is the abandonment of Protection really the serious conviction of the American people. Attacks on the protective system have lately come from many Americans who have hitherto been identified with Protection, but these attacks are more political and factional and the manifestations of a spirit of unrest and a pursuit of fads than anything else.

Protection will continue to be the policy of this people, after the men in Congress and many newspapers have ceased to attack the system. Many Americans have worked themselves into such a political frenzy over this subject that they are almost prevented from seeing the matter in a clear and patriotic light. Without Protection this country would soon be in an industrial chaos and any entrance upon a Free-Trade policy would be followed with such disastrous results that it would be immediately reversed.—Cedar Rapids Republican.

Order for Graded School Election.

Orders Ohio County Court, regular July, term, 5th, day of July 1909. Hon W. B. Taylor, J. O. C. C. Presiding. Chas. Cargal et al,

For—
Graded Common School.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that at the regular May term 1909, of this court, Chas. Cargal and 23 other legal white voters of common School Sub-Districts Nos. 14, 15 and 16 of Educational Division No. 5 of Ohio county, Kentucky and Post office address, McHenry, Kentucky, did cause to be filed with the Clerk of this court, as provided by law, a petition, wherein they prayed for the establishment of a Graded Common School District, and that an election be ordered to take the sense of the legal white voters within said district, as to whether or not they were in favor of levying a tax of 50 cents on each $100.00 worth of taxable property belonging to said voters, or corporations within said district, together with a poll tax of $1.50 on each legal white voter residing therein, for the purpose of purchasing erecting or repairing suitable building or buildings and for the maintenance of said Graded Common School.

At the regular June, 1909 term of this court, the same petitioners, Chas. Cargal and others filed an amended petition, changing only the boundary of the proposed Graded Common School District, as given in original petition and said petition as amended, was in words and figures as follows to-wit:

To Hon W. B. Taylor Judge of the Ohio County Court.

We, the undersigned petitioners, being legal voters and tax-payer in the boundary hereinafter set out, respectfully petition that you order an election to take the sense of the legal white vote as to whether a Graded Common School shall be established and maintained, by levy and collected for that purpose, of a tax of not exceeding 50 cents on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) worth of property in said district, owned by white persons and by Corporations and a poll tax of one dollar and fifty cents (1.50) of each white male inhabitant therein, over twenty-one years of age, under Sections 4464 and following the Kentucky Statutes and under Section 100 and following the Common School Laws of Kentucky and said District to be bound as follows:

Beginning at Frank Harris' at Mercer with Baker's line thence South East to George McFarlands, including him; thence to Hiram Maddox's place, including it; thence to the Fisher farm including it; thence to the R. P. Beck place including it; thence to the Delmer Austin place, including it; thence South to the Rochester and Hartford road; thence with said road, including all on the North side of said road, to the Sam Maddox place including it; thence to the Galther property, including it; thence to the James Austin property including it; thence to the O'Brien property, now owned by the McHenry Coal Company including it; thence to the Klepper place including it; thence to the Cleveland Austin place, including it; thence to Dude Phelps, including him; thence to the R. P. Beck property on the corner bordering on the Rochester and Hartford road, including it; thence to the D. M. Duncan place, including it; thence to the Nick Swan property, including it; then to the Dick Toll property, including it and all the Company houses between these two places thence to the widow Guy's property including it; thence to the E. G. Rander property, including it; thence to the E. F. Rander farm, including it; thence to the Sallie G. Rander place including it; thence to the Williams Coal Company's land including what is known as the Hocker place and on a portion of which Alonzo Minton now lives; thence to and including what is known as the Simon Jones property and on which Buck Simpson lives; thence to the boundary line between the Williams Coal Company and James Rice, including the Maddox farm on which Addle Spinks now lives; thence to the property of J. T. Main including it and also including the property owned by Warren Baker known as the Old Kelly place; thence to the homestead of Frank Harris, including all on the South side of Baker's line to the beginning.

We further represent that the foregoing boundary embraces Common School Sub-district, Nos. 14, 15 and 16 Educational Division No. 5 and this petition has the approval of the Trustees of each of said Districts and also of the County Superintendent of Schools.

We designate a certain tract or parcel of land situated between McHenry and Williams Mines, in Ohio County Kentucky, on the West side of the Illinois Central Railroad and just below the Brown Mercantile Company's store and known as the "Old Field" as a site for the building for the proposed Graded Common School and certify that said site is not more than two and one-half miles from any portion of the boundary of the proposed District.

It further appearing to the satisfaction of the court that said Petition and amended Petition were regularly filed and docketed at the May and June terms 1909 of this Court; by order laid over one month for exceptions and none having been noted or filed herein and that said Petition and proposition meets with the approval of County School Superintendent, James M. Dewese, as per his indorsement thereon and the Court being sufficiently advised, it is therefore ordered and adjudged that said Graded Common School District be established as fully set out in the Petition as amended and as above recorded and that the Sheriff of Ohio county, Kentucky, R. B. Martin, be and he is hereby ordered and directed to open a poll at the Williams Mines school house, in the said proposed Graded Common School District, on Saturday August 21st, 1909 for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal white voters of said proposed district, which District embraces Nos. 14, 15 and 16, of Educational Division No. 5. the levying and collection annually of a tax of fifty cents on each $100.00 worth of taxable property within said District owned by white persons and Corporations and also a poll tax of $1.50 on each legal white voter residing within said District, for the purpose of repairing erecting or purchasing suitable building or buildings and the maintenance of said graded common school as aforesaid.

It is further adjudged by the court that each and all allegations and statements set forth in the petition as amended are true. Said sheriff of Ohio county Kentucky copy of the order herein by the clerk of this court will have same published as required by law and will at the same time and place as above described cause the two officers appointed by him a judge and a clerk to hold said election to propound the following question to each of the legal white voters offering to vote Are you for or against the levying and collection of tax, annually of 50 cents on each $100.00 worth of taxable property within said district owned by white persons and corporations and a poll tax of $1.50 on each legal white voter resident therein, to be used for the purpose herein set for and they shall record the vote thereon as each voter may direct, and they shall at the same time and place hold an election at which a board of five trustees shall be elected by the duly qualified voters of said district for said proposed Graded Common School District and are cause is continued for report as prescribed law.

A COPY-ATTEST:

W. S. TINSLEY, Clerk.

By S. A. WOERNER, Deputy Clerk. In obedience to the foregoing I will open a poll at Williams Mines August 21st 1909 for the purpose there in stated.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

THAT EDUCATION IS MOST PROFITABLE
Which puts knowledge in the head, skill in the hand, and dollars in the pocket. Our course in bookkeeping, business customs, shorthand and typewriting, is endorsed by business men because it enables our graduates to meet the requirements of the business office. It puts young men and women to work where advancement follows satisfactory service. Over 500 pupils attend annually. Fifty typewriters for instruction purposes. Worthy pupils assisted to positions. Fall term begins Monday Sept. 6th. Write for catalog.
